

Financial Support for Professional Membership

- Faculty members can avail this facility after completion of one-year service in the institute. In case the faculty member is on probation, the financial support may be availed only after the due approval by the competent authorities.
- 80% of the membership fees for one or more societies may be supported with a maximum of Rs. 8,000 per academic year.